

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, April 18, 1879, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. April 18th. 1879.
Alec dear:

I thought to have time for a letter, but Cousin S. is going now and I can only send dearest love. I wish I had you home again. Nothing seems progressing without you, my picture is horrid and Mamma is in the blues because Papa has engaged his passage, and do come as soon as you can.

If you love me take care of yourself, eat no vegetables and walk as little as you can and don't sit up at nights.

Your loving, Mabel.
